GAME #1 Miami 35, Washington 17

WASHINGTON, SEPT. 2 — The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's five touchdown passes, defeated the Washington Redskins 35-17 before 52,683 fans at RFK Stadium. Miami broke out on top late in the opening quarter on a six play, 69-yard drive highlighted by a 15-yard Tony Nathan run and a 20-yard Marino to Jim Jensen pass. The touchdown came on a 26-yard pass play from Marino to Mark Duper. On Washington's ensuing possession, running back John Riggins carried on seven of the nine plays in the Redskins' tying TD drive, eventually scoring on a one-yard run. Later in the second quarter, three Joe Theismann completions for a total of 52 yards led to a 32-yard field goal by Washington's Mark Mosley. The Dolphins took a 14-10 halftime lead when Marino and Duper hooked up on a 74-yard touchdown pass, the seventh longest pass play in Miami's history. The third quarter was all Miami as Marino threw three touchdown passes the first three times his team had possession. Again, the Marino to Duper combination provided the key play, this time resulting in a 46-yard gain. The score came on a six-yard toss to quarterback-turned receiver Jensen. After Miami's Mark Brown forced a fumble by Joe Washington, Marino completed four passes to four different receivers with the touchdown coming on a leaping nine-yard catch by Clayton. Leading 28-14, Dolphin cornerback William Judson intercepted a Theismann pass and returned it 40 yards to the Redskins seven. Another Marino to Jensen TD pass (four yards) closed out the Dolphin scoring. The Redskins scored once more midway through the fourth quarter on a four-yard run by Washington.

GAME #2 Miami 28, New England 7

MIAMI, SEPT. 9 — The Miami Dolphins defeated the New England Patriots 28-7 before 66,083 fans in the Orange Bowl. The win marked the 17th consecutive time that the Dolphins had beaten the Patriots in Miami and was also the 33rd time in 15 tries that a Don Shula-coached Dolphin team has won its home opener. The game was scoreless until midway into the second quarter when Glenn Blackwood intercepted a Steve Grogan pass to set the Dolphins up at their own 45. One play later, Miami scored on a 35-yard flea flicker from Dan Marino to quarterback-turned wide receiver Jim Jensen to Mark Duper. On the next series, New England tied it when Grogan's nine-yard pass to Lin Dawson culminated a ten-play, 90-yard touchdown drive. The Dolphins went ahead to stay when they scored touchdowns on their first two possessions of the third quarter. Two Marino completions paved the way for a 38-yard scoring toss to Mark Clayton. On the Patriots' next series, wide receiver Cedric Jones fumbled when hit by Miami's William Judson (Charles Bowser recovered) and Marino again connected with Clayton for a touchdown (15 yards) to put the Dolphins ahead 21-7. The scoring ended late in the final quarter when Mike Kozlowski intercepted a Grogan aerial and returned it 26 yards before lateraling to Judson who ran the remaining 60 yards for the touchdown.

ORCHARD PARK, 17 The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 296 yards passing and three touchdowns, defeated the Buffalo Bills 21-17 before 65,455 fans at Rich Stadium. Marino scored first midway through the opening quarter when Marino moved the Dolphins 62 yards in eight plays with the touchdown coming on an 11 yard toss to Mark Duper. After Bob Baumhower blocked a 47 yard field goal attempt by Buffalo's Joe Danelo, the Dolphins extended their lead to 14-0. Three short Marino completions preceded a 12 yard touchdown pass to Clayton. Buffalo got its first points on a 33-yard Danelo field goal with only nine seconds remaining in the first half. The Dolphins' final touchdown came on their initial possession of the third quarter when Nat Moore scored his first TD of the '84 season on a one-yard catch of a Marino throw. The score had been set up by a pair of Marino to Duper completions (20, 18 yards). On the Bills' next series, QB Joe Ferguson engineered a 13-play, 80-yard touchdown drive with former University of Miami star Speedy Heal scoring from one yard out. The Bills narrowed their gap to 21-17 in the fourth quarter on a 79-yard drive ending in a 37-yard scoring pass from Ferguson to Julius Dawkins. With Buffalo in Miami territory late in the game, Dolphin safety Mike Kozlowski forced a Byron Franklin fumble with Don McNeal recovering.

Miami 44, Indianapolis 7

MIAMI, SEPT. 23 — The Miami Dolphins, registering their most points scored since September 12, 1982, soundly defeated the Indianapolis Colts 44-7 before 55,415 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first possession of the game, moving 82 yards in 12 plays. Key plays in the drive included a 23-yard Dan Marino to Mark Duper pass and a pass interference penalty on the Colts' Tate Randle (intended for Duper) that gave Miami a 28-yard gain. The touchdown came on a one-yard plunge by newly-acquired Pete Johnson. Indianapolis scored their only points on its next series, as QB Mike Papez put together an 80-yard scoring drive including a five-yard TD pass to TE Dave Young. On the second play following the Colts' kickoff, Marino checked off a running play after spotting man-to-man pass coverage and connected on an 80-yard scoring play with Duper. The PAT was missed by Uwe von Schamann, but he came back later in the quarter to connect on a 27-yard field goal. Miami increased its lead to 23-7 late in the first half when Marino hit Duper for a five-yard touchdown. The Dolphins went ahead 30-7 midway through the third quarter when McNeal intercepted a Papez pass (deflected off Dickey) and returned it 11 yards for the second touchdown of his four-year career. Later in the period, a 37-yard Vince Heflin punt return gave Miami possession at the Colts' 31, and one play later, fullback Woody Bennett scored on a four-yard run. The Dolphins closed out the scoring early in the final quarter as four Joe Carter runs preceded Bennett's one-yard touchdown dive.

Miami jumped off to a 6-0 first quarter lead on a pair of Uwe von Schamann field goals of 27 and 26 yards. The first three pointer was set up by a 31 yard Marino to Dan Johnson completion while the Dolphins got in position for the second field goal thanks to a 51 yard hook up between Marino and Mark Duper. Miami stretched its lead to 12-0 early in the second quarter when the team drove 80 yards in just six plays, scoring on a 26 yard pass from Marino to tight end Joe Rose (PAT blocked). The key play in that touchdown march had been Marino's 42 yard completion to Mark Clayton. The Cardinals got their first points on their next possession on Stump Mitchell's two-yard run. The Dolphins then went 78 yards in just seven plays in a drive that included a Marino 37 yard completion to Clayton before Pete Johnson scored on a one-yard run. St. Louis narrowed Miami's margin to 19-14 with just 1:11 left in the first half when Lomax connected with Marsh for a 22 yard scoring play. However, the quick striking Marino moved the Dolphins 53 yards in just 51 seconds, throwing a 29 yard TD pass to Clayton to put Miami ahead 26-14 at halftime. The Cardinals had the only points of the third quarter when Earl Ferrell scored on an 11 yard run. Four Marino passes for 49 yards preceded his swing pass to Tony Nathan for a 23 yard touchdown early in the final quarter. The Dolphins stretched their advantage to 36-21 following Don McNeal's recovery of Tilley's fumble (William Judson forced) at the Cardinal 32. Six plays later, von Schamann kicked his third field goal of the day from 27 yards out. Mitchell's four-yard scoring run for the Cards ended the game's scoring.

FOXBORO, OCT. 21 — The Miami Dolphins, rolling up a team record tying 552 yards of total offense, beat the New England Patriots, 44-24 before 60,711 fans at Sullivan Stadium. The Dolphins scored on their first possession as Uwe von Schamann kicked a 28-yard field goal on the 3th play of a 74-yard drive. The Patriots immediately tied it on Tony Franklin's 48-yard field goal, the first points the Dolphins had allowed in the opening quarter this season. Miami again went ahead on its next series as full back Pete Johnson scored on a one-yard run. With just under two minutes remaining in the first half, three Tony Eason completions for a total of 43 yards led to a 14-yard touchdown pass to Clarence Weathers to knot the score at 10-10. However, Manno then drove Miami 80 yards in 1:49 before connecting with Nat Moore for the touchdown (19 yards, PAT blocked). Miami scored touchdowns on a 14 of its second half possessions, opening the third quarter with a 13-play, 80-yard scoring drive. Key plays in the TD march included a 30-yard reverse by Clayton and a 19-yard Manno to Jimmy Cefalo pass. The score came on Dan Johnson's first touchdown of 1984, a five-yard reception. Trailing 23-10, New England cut into Miami's margin on its next play as Eason connected with Stanley Morgan for a 76-yard scoring hook-up. But Manno again brought the Dolphins right back hitting Clayton with a 15-yard TD throw in a drive that was aided by a 35-yard Joe Carter run. The Pats also came right back, trimming the Dolphins' lead to 30-24 on Eason's five-yard scoring strike to Derrick Ramsey. Moore's 15-yard touchdown reception made it 37-24 before Miami's A.J. Duhe forced a Tony Collins fumble (William Judson recovered) and five Woody Bennett runs eventually led to Pete Johnson's second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run.

The Dolphins opened the scoring on their second possession as quarterback Manno connected with Nat Moore on a 37-yard touchdown pass. The Jets immediately led the game as Freeman McNeil's 52-yard run was the big play that preceded Pat Ryan's 33-yard TD throw to Wesley Walker. was blocked by Miami's William Judson. The Dolphins then moved 82 yards in 12 plays with the touchdown that put Miami ahead 14-10 coming on a three-yard run by ex-Jet Woody Bennett. New York took the lead back on their initial possession of the fourth quarter as McNeil scored on a six-yard run to cap a 72-yard drive. Tony Paige's 24-yard run on a fake punt led to that Jet TD. The second half continued to see-saw as Miami regained the lead for good on its next series when Manno connected with Mark Clayton for a 47-yard touchdown play. The Dolphins extended their lead to 24-17 on Uwe von Schamann's 30-yard field goal. A.J. San Diego 34, Miami 28 (OT)

SAN DIEGO, NOV. 18 — The Miami Dolphins saw a 14-point fourth quarter lead disappear as they lost to the San Diego Chargers 34-28 in overtime before 53,041 fans in Jack Murphy Stadium. The loss, Miami's first regular season defeat in 371 days, snapped their winning streak at 16 games (one short of NFL record). The Dolphins had a chance to jump ahead early when Fulton Walker's 41-yard kickoff return and Mark Duper's 32-yard reception gave Miami the ball at the Charger two-yard line. However, a Woody Bennett fumble on the next play, plus a Dan Marino interception (on the San Diego seven) on the Dolphins' next series cost Miami two scoring opportunities. The Chargers then mounted a ten-play, 93-yard drive that ended with a three-yard TD pass from Dan Fouts to Eric Sievers. The Dolphins immediately tied it at 7-7 as Dan Marino led them on a nine-play, 78-yard march that featured a 12-yard TD toss to Mark Clayton. Miami scored again on its next possession on Pete Johnson's one-yard run that had been set up by Marino completions to Duper (19 yards) and Bruce Hardy (18 yards). San Diego came right back to make it 14-14 as Fouts to Charlie Joiner four-yard TD culminated an 80-yard drive. The Dolphins then scored on their third consecutive series when Marino connected with Bennett for a four-yard touchdown. Miami extended its lead to 28-14 with the only points of the third quarter on Pete Johnson's three-yard run. Lyle Blackwood's interception and a 19-yard Marino to Duper pass had helped put Miami into position for the score. Early in the fourth quarter the Chargers cut into Miami's lead with an 80-yard drive that ended when Fouts hit Joiner for a 19-yard touchdown. After forcing a Miami punt, San Diego embarked on a 19-play, 91-yard drive with Fouts hitting Sievers with a three-yard TD throw that tied the score at 28-28. With 44 seconds left to work with, Marino moved the Dolphins down to the Charger 26-yard line, but Uwe von Schamann hooked a 44-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. The Chargers won the overtime coin toss and drove 69 yards for a touchdown on their initial possession. Rookie RB Buford McGee scored the game winner on a 25-yard run.

GAME #14

L.A. Raiders 45, Miami 34

MIAMI, DEC. 2 — The Miami Dolphins, despite four touchdown passes and a team record 470 yards passing by Dan Marino, lost a 45-34 decision to the Los Angeles Raiders before 71,222 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved 62 yards to the Los Angeles three yard line on their first possession, but a third down Marino pass was intercepted by Mike Haynes and returned 97 yards for a touchdown. Miami immediately tied the score on a 12 play, 72-yard drive that culminated in a four-yard Marino to Jimmy Cefalo TD throw. Early in the second quarter a William Judson interception of a Marc Wilson pass (23 yard return) gave Miami possession on the Raider six. After an incomplete pass, Tony Nathan scored his first rushing touchdown of the season to put the Dolphins ahead 13-7 (PAT blocked by Sean Jones). The Raiders came right back to take a 14-13 lead when Cle Montgomery's 42-yard kickoff return set up Marcus Allen's 11 yard TD run. Later in the period a pair of Todd Christensen catches (21, 12 yards) paved the way for Chris Bahr's 44-yard field goal that gave L.A. a 17-13 advantage. On their first series of the third quarter the Raiders upped their lead to 24-13 on a seven-yard scoring pass from Wilson to TE Dave Gasper. Miami later embarked on a 91 yard scoring march that ended with a 64-yard touchdown reception by Clayton. On their next series the Dolphins took a 27-24 lead as Clayton again scored this time on an 11 yard Marino pass. The five-play, 83 yard drive was bolstered by a 23-yard Woody Bennett run and a 25-yard screen pass to Nathan. Midway through the fourth period, Los Angeles struck quickly as Wilson connected with Dokie Williams for a 75-yard TD play. Miami's next series ended with another Haynes interception (54 yard return) and two plays later, Allen scored from six yards out. The Dolphins then cut their deficit to 38-34 as Marino completed eight passes in an 86-yard drive that ended with his nine-yard TD toss to Mark Duper. However, Miami's hope for a comeback fizzled when L.A.'s Allen ran 52 yards for his third touchdown on a crucial third down play.

GAME #15

Miami 35, Indianapolis 17

INDIANAPOLIS, DEC. 9 The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 404 yards passing and Mark Clayton's 127 yards receiving (nine catches), defeated the Indianapolis Colts 35-17 before 60,411 fans in the Hoosier Dome. The Dolphin defense permitted just 27 yards of Colt offense in the second half to go with Marino's four touchdown passes. The Colts scored first midway through the first quarter when runs by Randy McMillan (12 yards) and Mike Pagel (14 yards) led to Pagel's five yard scoring pass to Ray Butler. Miami came back on its very next possession to tie the game as Marino led the Dolphins on a ten-play, 85-yard drive with the touchdown coming on a two-yard Woody Bennett run. Three pass completions to Clayton (18-11-5 yards) set up the TD. Indianapolis went ahead 10-7 early in the second period on Raul Allegre's 52-yard field goal. The Colts stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 19-play 95-yard march that consumed 8:58. A 21 yard Pagel to Tracy Porter pass preceded McMillan's six-yard TD run. The second half was all Miami as the Dolphins outscored the Colts 28-0. On the first series of the third quarter the Dolphins moved 80 yards in just six plays with the touchdown coming on a two-yard Marino toss to Nat Moore. Miami took the lead for keeps on its next possession as Marino hooked up with Tony Nathan (16 yards) and Jim Jensen (14 yards) led to his two-yard TD throw to Bruce Hardy. The Dolphins extended their advantage to 28-17 early in the fourth quarter as Moore's 18-yard reception helped lead to Jimmy Cefalo's 25-yard scoring catch. Miami closed out the scoring when Marino hit Indianapolis native Clayton with a seven-yard scoring pass.

GAME #16 Miami 28, Dallas 21

MIAMI, DEC. 17 — The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's four touchdown passes and Mark Clayton's three TD receptions, defeated the Dallas Cowboys 28-21 before 74,139 fans in the Orange Bowl. After a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins broke out on top midway through the second period when Marino led them on an eight-play, 80-yard drive. The touchdown came on a 41-yard hook up between Marino and Clayton. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 on the opening series of the second half with an 11-play, 81-yard march that culminated with a three-yard Marino to Bruce Hardy TD toss. The score had been set up by a 31-yard pass interference penalty (intended for Clayton). Later in the third quarter, Dallas scored on Timmy Newsome's one-yard run. The Cowboys tied the game at 14-14 in the final period when a Michael Downs interception gave Dallas possession on at the Dolphin 21-yard line. Three plays later, Newsome scored again from four yards out. On Miami's next series, a 17-yard completion to Mark Duper preceded a 39-yard pass-and-run touchdown from Marino to Clayton. That was the first of three TDs in the game's final three minutes. The Cowboys immediately evened the score at 21-21 when Tony Hill came up with a tipped pass and turned it into a 66-yard touchdown play. Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Marino hit Clayton, who eluded Dallas DBs Downs and Ron Felows, and scored on a 63-yard play to win the game.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF Miami 31, Seattle 10

MIAMI, DEC. 29 — The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13 play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

MIAMI, JAN. 6 — The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the first half's final 2:52, first on a 41-yard reception by Mark Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown throw before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard reception.
